

The Master of Divinity and Chaplaincy Program is a professional degree designed for those who intend to work in the ministry as a chaplain. It consists of 72 semester credit hours, with courses in Theology, Biblical Interpretation, Biblical Languages, Ministry Formation, Intercultural Studies, Leadership, Chaplaincy and Counseling.

The Chaplaincy Program provides MDiv students theoretical and practical knowledge to prepare them for vocations in variety of chaplaincy contexts.

Upon successful completion of the Chaplaincy Program, students will:

- Develop and articulate a theology and theory of chaplain ministry that integrates biblical and theological content with practical ministry skills.
- Demonstrate competence with regard to chaplaincy and counseling practices in interpersonal, communal, and public contexts.

Theology (15 Credits)

TH6301	Christian Theology I
TH6302	Christian Theology II
TH6304	Biblical Theology
TH6310	Apologetics in a Postmodern World
TH6321	Survey of Church History

Biblical Interpretation (12 Credits)

BI6350	Hermeneutics
BI6301	Old Testament Introduction
BI6302	New Testament Introduction
	Old or New Testament Book

Biblical Languages (6 Credits – Choose Greek or Hebrew)

BL6301	New Testament Greek I
& BL6302	New Testament Greek II
	or
BL6305	Biblical Hebrew I
& BL6306	Biblical Hebrew II

Intercultural (3 Credits)

IC6306	World Religions
--------	-----------------

Ministry Formation (9 Credits)

PM6301	Homiletics
CO6312	Counseling Skills & Theory
CO6318	Marriage & Family Counseling

Leadership (3 Credits)

ML6302	The Christian Leader
--------	----------------------

Elective (3 Credits)

CHAPLAINCY PROGRAM:

Chaplaincy Formation (9 Credits)

CP 6301	The Chaplaincy Ministry
CP 6302	Chaplaincy & Spiritual Care
CP 7303	Clinical Pastoral Education

Counseling (12 Credits)

CO 6315	Practical Biblical Counseling
CO 6316	Counseling Strategies
CO 6317	Multicultural Issues in Counseling
CO 6319	Crisis Counseling